Unexpected Blessing on Sunday, Dec. 9

The Isaacs, a multi-award-winning family group who began singing 35 years ago are based out of Hendersonville, TN. The vocalists are mother Lily Isaacs and siblings Ben Isaacs, Sonya Isaacs Yeary and Rebecca Isaacs Bowman. Playing their own acoustic instruments and joined by other band members, The Isaacs have a unique style that blends tight family harmony with contemporary acoustic instrumentation that appeals to a variety of audiences.

They perform frequently at the Grand Ole Opry, are active members on the Gaither Homecoming Videos and Concert Series, and travel internationally throughout the year to perform to welcoming fans in countries such as South Africa, Norway, Holland, Scotland, Ireland, Israel, Canada and many more. Concert venues include civic centers, auditoriums, arenas, fair grounds, parks, churches and other locations. They have been nominated at and performed on the Dove Awards, IBMA (International Bluegrass Music Association) and NQC (National Quartet Convention) Awards, the ICMA Awards (Inspirational Christian Country). Other notable performances include CMA Fan Fest (Country Music Fan Fest), Carnegie Hall, and many professional sporting events, including a Cincinnati Bengal's football game, Nashville Predators Hockey games, and an Astros/ Braves baseball game. The Isaacs have won over 7 Doves in various categories and have had several Grammy nominations in their career. They feel blessed to be able to travel and spread the message of hope and grace through song and story.

The Isaacs will be in a free concert at Wentzville First Assembly of God on Sunday, Dec. 9 at 6 pm. An offering will be received.

Birthday Club Meets Again

Had a great turn out on Friday night for the birthday club meal honoring Terry and Crissann Sykes. The crew met at El Agave and had a enjoyable time of fellowship and food, and enjoyed the opportunity to share a special moment with some special people.

Santa's Magic Kingdom

The church bus headed to Santa's Magic Kingdom on Friday, Nov. 30 to take a Christmas light tour. The Magic Kingdom is next door to the Six Flags amusement park. The park offers wagon rides through the lights, so they parked the bus and enjoyed the open air and a tremendous light show. After the light tour they headed to Chesterfield for a meal at Cane's Chicken Finger Restaurant. It was a great night of getting into the Christmas cheer.
